Greenville Recreation & Parks Department Puppy Kindergarten Class

The Greenville Recreation and Parks Department and Paw Sense Pet Dog Training will be sponsoring Puppy Kindergarten Classes. Learn how to train your puppy (14 weeks to 6 months) with positive reinforcement and to turn training into a game that you and your puppy will enjoy. Puppy classes will also focus on socialization, housebreaking, and puppy behavior. Classes are one hour per week for five weeks beginning Tuesday, July 19 until August 16 from 7-8 PM at the Jaycee Park Activity Room. Class size is limited to 6 puppies per class. The first class is held without puppies. Suzan Molloy will be the instructor; she is a member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers and is a Canine Good Citizenship Evaluator.

The cost for Puppy Kindergarten Class is $50 for Greenville residents and $100 for non-residents. To register, come by the Jaycee Park Administrative Building at 2000 Cedar Lane. Before class, all puppies must show proof of Rabies, DHLPP, and Bordetella (kennel cough) vaccinations.

All adopted puppies that show proof of adoption will receive a 10% discount on class price.
